

CPMR ENERGY WORKING GROUP

19/20 September 2005 - Truro City Hall, Cornwall, UK
Hosted by Cornwall Sustainable Energy Partnership (CSEP)

How can the development of renewables and reduction in energy demand be taken on board alongside social, economic and environmental imperatives?

Draft Programme

DAY ONE

Presentations / visit to the Eden Project / networking on River Trip

Monday 19 September

- 09:30 Steering Committee Meeting, Truro City Hall (Committee Meeting Room) - STEERING COMMITTEE MEMBERS ONLY
- 13:00 Delegates depart Truro for visit to Eden Project (by bus). The Eden Project has the world's biggest greenhouse and has been described as the 'greatest stage on earth' containing a living theatre of plants in a thirty acre global garden.
- 13:45 Arrival at Eden Project, Bodelva, St.Austell
- 14.0 Presentations:
 i) 'The Eden Project'
 (Chris Hines, Sustainability Director at the Eden Project).
 ii) 'Energy and Sustainability in Cornwall'
 (Tim German, Director, CSEP).
- 15:00 Guided tour of Eden Project
- 16:45 Depart for return to Truro
- 17:30 Arrive in Truro
- 19:00 Join local councillors and key membership organisations of the Cornwall Sustainable Energy Partnership on a leisurely boat trip along the River Fal departs from Town Quay Truro via the port of Falmouth to the beautiful village of St Mawes with local beer and wine and pasties (return Truro 23.00)

DAY TWO Tuesday 20 September TRURO CITY HALL, Boscawen Street.
(English/French simultaneous interpretation will be provided during the day)

How can the development of renewables and reduction in energy demand be taken on board alongside social, economic and environmental imperatives?

Debate, discussion and best practice.

- 09:00 Registration & Coffee.
- 09:30 Welcome message from leader of Cornwall County Council (Councillor David Whalley)
- 09:45 Welcome from Navarre Region (Enrique Diaz Moreno, chair of the steering group)
- 10:00 Overview of the Energy Working Group and aims of the workshop (Jean-Didier Hache, CPMR)
- 10:30 'Sustainable Energy Europe Campaign', Ronald Bailey, DG TREN, European Commission
- 11:00 Coffee break
- 11:30 The importance of placing energy at the heart of sustainable development - the Cornwall perspective (Tim German, CSEP)
- 12:00 How each region is addressing the social, economic and environmental role of renewable energy and energy efficiency
- problems/issues/solutions (Max. 10 minutes per CPMR region
- timings depend on number of regions participating)
- 13:00 Lunch
- 14:00 Continuation of regional presentations from CPMR members
- 15:00 Open debate and discussion based on issues raised by the regions (coffee break 15:45 - 16:00):
- What are the main issues?
- Where are there similarities?
- What best practice can be identified?
- How can we share and promote this best practice?
- Recommendations for the Navarre conference (Nov 2006)
- Do we need a second workshop?
- 16:30 Summing up & closing speeches
- 17:00 Close - (move to Council Chamber)
Reception with Mayor of Truro, Cllr Stuart Roden.

Evening options:

i) freetime in Truro

ii) walk on North Coast Cliff Top - ending at the Blue Bar Porthtowan.